YOUR DOLLARS AT WORK

The Impact of the Funds We are Raising

Since 1987 New Foundations Nonviolence Center have been providing programs to incarcerated men and women in the state of Colorado. These programs empower people in the criminal justice system to make positive life changes for the betterment of themselves, their families and the community at large.

New Foundations Will Utilize the Money for Three Key Areas. This Means Investing in the Following:

PROGRAMS

We engage people in transformative workshops, one-to-one visits and telephone support that help them examine their own lives, learn new skills, find new resources and gain the confidence to approach life's challenges in a non-violent way.

EDUCATION

Our services provide education to the public about the nature of the experience of those who have come into contact with the criminal justice system. This kind of education simultaneously addresses the polarizing notions in society at large which prevent true change from occurring.

PEOPLE

Volunteers are the backbone of the programs. We continue to assemble teams of dedicated volunteers to maximize impact in our communities.

In 2010 NFNC delivered programs to 2947 clients in combined programs in 6 different counties.
